

North Central College / Garrett-Evangelical
Theological Seminary Partnership Program

MAKE YOUR MISSION OF FAITH AND SERVICE A REALITY

North Central College has partnered with Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary (GETS) to offer you the opportunity to pursue a graduate degree in religious studies while still enrolled at North Central

- Earn up to 15 hours of graduate credit to use toward a master's degree at GETS or another school of your choice
- Save money on future graduate tuition
- Choose between online, summer-intensive and traditional on-site courses
- Enroll in classes like United Methodist Studies, Youth Ministry, Spiritual Formation, Ecumenicalism and many more
- Enjoy studying away and experience the beautiful GETS campus in Evanston, Ill.
- Benefit from professional or vocational advising specific to religious leadership and social engagement before beginning your graduate program
- Available to North Central juniors and seniors in good standing after completing at least 12 hours of religious studies courses

NORTH CENTRAL COLLEGE
NAPERVILLE, ILLINOIS
Founded 1861

For more information, contact Wioleta Polinska, professor of religious studies and chairperson of the department of religious studies, at wdpolinska@noctrl.edu or (630) 637-5317.